

Interim President, Minneapolis Community and Technical College Minnesota State Colleges and Universities

Call for Nominations and Expressions of Interest Internal Candidates Only

Chancellor Steven Rosenstone invites nominations and expressions of interest for the position of Interim President of Minneapolis Community and Technical College. This is a call for internal candidates only (current employees of Minnesota State Colleges and Universities). The Board of Trustees is the appointing authority for this position. The appointment will begin in September, 2014. It is anticipated that the interim will serve for one year. The position is covered by the Personnel Plan for MnSCU Administrators.

Board of Trustees Policy 4.2 describes the responsibilities of a president, including an interim president:

The president is the chief executive officer of the college or university. The president shall report to the chancellor and is responsible for leading the college and/or university faculty, staff and students in developing and implementing the college or university mission, consistent with the Board mission and goals. The president is the primary spokesperson for college and/or university interests and shall consult with students, faculty, staff and members of the community. The president shall advise the chancellor, the staff of the system office, and the Board of Trustees on matters of system policy as appropriate, and otherwise administer and support all Minnesota State Colleges and Universities policies and programs. They shall also lead in generating and sustaining the university/college vision as an integral part of the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system. The duties and responsibilities of the president shall include, but not be limited to, adhering to Board policies and system procedures, employing personnel, providing innovative educational leadership, allocating campus resources, and implementing the Board's strategic plan.

Under Board Policy 4.2, an interim president shall not be considered as a candidate in a search for the presidency.

Please submit nominations (with full contact information of the nominee) or expressions of interest (with cover letter and CV) by noon on Monday, June 9, 2014 to:
